Report:

SAS Government Degree College marked the 73rd Independence Day with a grand celebration on August 15th, 2019, bringing together students, faculty, and staff in a spirit of patriotism and unity. The event, presided over by Sri Dr. B.V. Tirupanyam, Principal of the college, was enriched by a seminar delivered by Sri K.S. Chandra Sekhar, a distinguished lecturer in English, focusing on the history of India's struggle for independence.

The celebration commenced with the hoisting of the national flag by Sri Dr. B.V. Tirupanyam, accompanied by the rendition of the national anthem, stirring feelings of pride and reverence among all present. This was followed by the seminar delivered by Sri K.S. Chandra Sekhar, who eloquently delved into the significant milestones and key figures of India's freedom movement. His insightful discourse captivated the audience, shedding light on the sacrifices and triumphs that shaped the course of Indian history.

In addition to the seminar, a special photo exhibition was organized, showcasing iconic moments and leaders from the Indian independence movement. The exhibition served as a visual narrative of India's struggle for freedom, evoking emotions of admiration and gratitude towards the brave souls who fought tirelessly for the nation's sovereignty.

The event also featured cultural performances by students, including patriotic songs, dances, and recitations, which added vibrancy and fervor to the celebration. The enthusiastic participation of students and faculty contributed to the festive atmosphere, reinforcing the significance of Independence Day as a symbol of national pride and unity.

Outcome:

The Independence Day celebration at SAS Government Degree College yielded several positive outcomes:

Educational Enrichment: The seminar on the history of India's struggle for independence provided valuable insights and enhanced the knowledge of students and faculty about the nation's past.

Cultural Engagement: The cultural performances and photo exhibition offered platforms for artistic expression and cultural exchange, fostering a sense of unity and appreciation for India's diverse heritage.

Patriotic Spirit: The flag hoisting ceremony, national anthem rendition, and thematic focus on India's independence movement instilled a deep sense of patriotism and reverence for the nation among participants.

Historical Awareness: The photo exhibition served as a visual reminder of the sacrifices and contributions of freedom fighters, inspiring gratitude and respect for India's rich history of struggle and resilience.

Community Bonding: The celebration brought together students, faculty, and staff, promoting camaraderie and solidarity within the college community, and strengthening bonds of mutual respect and understanding.

Overall, the Independence Day celebration at SAS Government Degree College was a memorable tribute to the spirit of freedom and resilience that defines the nation's identity, leaving a lasting impact on all who participated.

Gandhi Jayanthi

Title: Gandhi Jayanti Celebration at SAS Government Degree College

Date: 02.10.2019

Participants: All College Students and Faculty

Chief Guest: Sri Y. Radha Krishna, Principal, SAS Government Degree College

Conducted by: The department of History

Report:

SAS Government Degree College celebrated the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, the father of the nation, with reverence and respect on the 2nd of October, 2018. The occasion witnessed the participation of students, faculty, and staff, all coming together to honor the legacy of Gandhiji.

The event commenced with a floral tribute offered to the portrait of Mahatma Gandhi by the esteemed Chief Guest, Sri Y. Radha Krishna, Principal of the college, accompanied by faculty members and student representatives. This solemn gesture symbolized the profound respect and admiration for the ideals espoused by Gandhiji.

Following the tribute, a series of activities aimed at promoting Gandhian values and principles were organized. These included essay competitions, poster-making contests, and debates centered around topics related to non-violence, truth, and social justice - the cornerstone of Gandhian philosophy. Students enthusiastically participated in these activities, showcasing their understanding and appreciation of Gandhian principles.

In his address, Sri Y. Radha Krishna emphasized the relevance of Gandhiji's teachings in the contemporary world and urged everyone to imbibe the spirit of ahimsa (non-violence) and satyagraha (truth force) in their lives. He underscored the importance of Gandhian values in fostering harmony, tolerance, and peace in society.

A cultural program featuring songs, skits, and speeches inspired by the life and teachings of Mahatma Gandhi was presented by the students. The performances resonated with the audience, invoking introspection and a renewed commitment to the ideals of truth and righteousness.

The event concluded with the distribution of prizes to the winners of the various competitions and a pledge taken by all present to uphold the principles of Gandhian thought in their daily lives.

Overall, the Gandhi Jayanti celebration at SAS Government Degree College was a meaningful tribute to the enduring legacy of Mahatma Gandhi, inspiring the college community to strive towards a more just, compassionate, and inclusive society.
