

S.A.S. GOVERNMENT DEGREE COLLEGE
NARAYANAPURAM, WEST GODAVARI DISTRICT-534411
(AFFILIATED TO ADIKAVI NANNAYA UNIVERSITY, RAJAMAHENDRAVARAM)

Phone: 08818 252189, E-mail: narayanapuram.jkc@gmail.com

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

2022-23

UNO DAY

Event Title: UNO Day

Date: 24-10-22

Organizers: Department of History and Political Science

Speakers: Dr.B.V.Tirupanyam (guest for the event), P. Bhaskar Rao Gaaru (Lecturer in History), K. Uma Sankar Gaaru (Lecturer in Political Science)

Introduction:

The Department of History and Political Science jointly organized a commemorative event on October 24th, 2022, to celebrate UNO Day, marking the anniversary of the founding of the United Nations Organization. The event aimed to reflect upon the UN's role in promoting international cooperation, peace, and sustainable development.

Event Highlights:

Inaugural Address by Dr. B. V. Tirupanyam:

Dr. Tirupanyam delivered the inaugural address, highlighting the significance of the United Nations in addressing global challenges such as poverty, inequality, and conflict. He emphasized the need for multilateralism and collective action to tackle pressing issues facing humanity in the 21st century.

Keynote Speech on UNO's Historical Significance:

Following the inaugural address, P. Bhaskar Rao, a renowned lecturer in History, delivered a keynote speech focusing on the historical context of the UN's establishment. He provided insights into the aftermath of World War II and the vision of global cooperation that led to the formation of the United Nations.

Discussion on UNO's Role in Contemporary World Affairs:

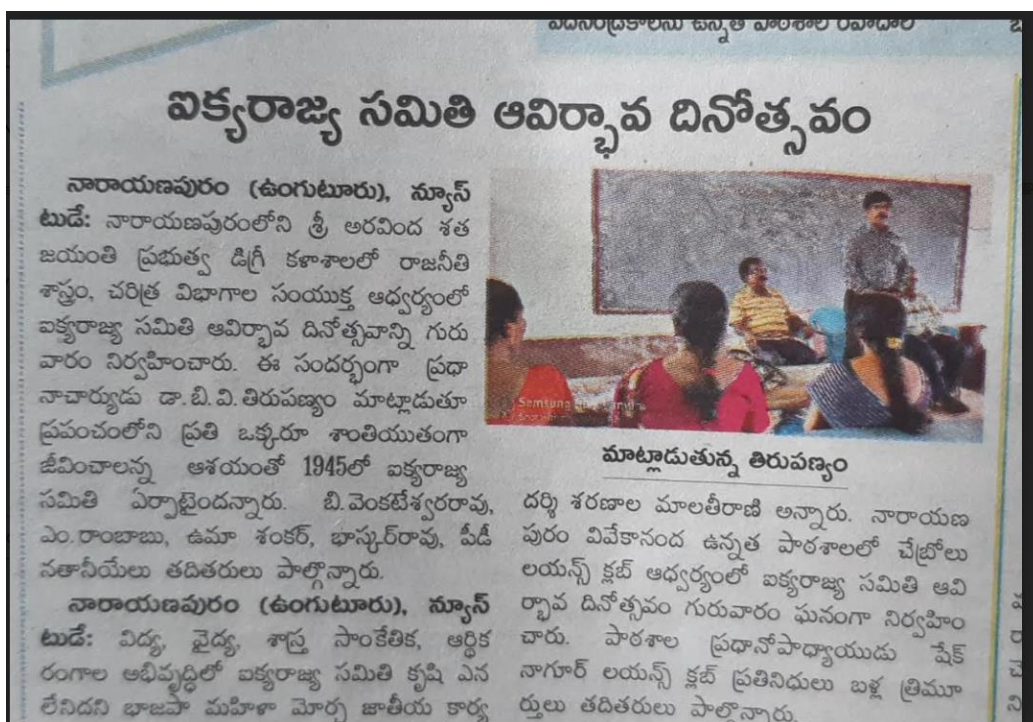

K. Uma Sankar, a lecturer in Political Science, led a panel discussion exploring the UN's role in addressing contemporary challenges such as climate change, humanitarian crises, and peacekeeping operations. The discussion delved into the effectiveness of UN mechanisms and the need for reform to enhance its capacity to respond to emerging global threats.

Interactive Sessions and Student Participation:

The event featured interactive sessions where students actively engaged with the speakers, asking questions and sharing their perspectives on the role of the UN in shaping the world order. This provided an opportunity for dialogue and critical reflection on the relevance and efficacy of international institutions in today's geopolitical landscape.

Conclusion:

The UNO Day commemoration organized by the Department of History and Political Science was a meaningful tribute to the ideals of international cooperation and peace embodied by the United Nations. Through insightful speeches, discussions, and student participation, the event underscored the importance of multilateralism in addressing the complex challenges facing humanity in the 21st century.

Signature of the Department In charge

Signature of the Principal

S.A.S. GOVERNMENT DEGREE COLLEGE
NARAYANAPURAM, WEST GODAVARI DISTRICT-534411
(AFFILIATED TO ADIKAVI NANNAYA UNIVERSITY, RAJAMAHENDRAVARAM)
Phone: 08818 252189, E-mail: narayanapuram.jkc@gmail.com

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

2022-23

POTTI SREERAMULU BIRTH ANNIVERSARY

Event Title: Potti Sreeramulu birth anniversary

Date: 16-3-23

Organizers: Department of History

Speakers: Dr.T.K.Visweswara Rao, P. Bhaskar Rao (Lecturer in History), Dr.K.Ravi, Department of Telugu

Report:

Keynote Address by Dr. T.K. Visweswara Rao:

Dr. Rao delivered the keynote address, providing insights into the life and achievements of Potti Sreeramulu. He highlighted Sreeramulu's pivotal role in the linguistic reorganization of states in India and his tireless efforts to secure official status for the Telugu language.

Perspectives from P. Bhaskar Rao:

P. Bhaskar Rao shared his perspectives on the significance of Potti Sreeramulu's contributions to the Indian freedom movement and the linguistic rights movement. He emphasized Sreeramulu's dedication to the cause of linguistic equality and his selfless sacrifice, which ultimately led to the formation of Andhra Pradesh.

Contribution from Dr. K. Ravi:

Dr. K. Ravi provided insights into the cultural and literary aspects of Potti Sreeramulu's legacy. He highlighted Sreeramulu's efforts to promote Telugu language and literature, underscoring his impact on shaping the cultural identity of the Telugu-speaking people.

Outcome of the Event:

The commemoration of Potti Sreeramulu's birth anniversary provided attendees with a deeper understanding of his contributions to the linguistic and cultural heritage of India, particularly in the Telugu-speaking regions. The event inspired participants to cherish and uphold the principles of linguistic diversity and cultural pride advocated by Sreeramulu.

Conclusion:

The Potti Sreeramulu Birth Anniversary Commemoration organized by the Department of History was a fitting tribute to a visionary leader who championed the cause of linguistic and cultural rights. Through insightful speeches and discussions, the event celebrated Sreeramulu's legacy and inspired attendees to continue his efforts in promoting linguistic equality and cultural diversity.

Key speakers of the event

Principal Dr.T.K.Visweswara Rao giving his message

Signature of the Department In charge

Signature of the Principal

S.A.S. GOVERNMENT DEGREE COLLEGE
NARAYANAPURAM, WEST GODAVARI DISTRICT-534411
(AFFILIATED TO ADIKAVI NANNAYA UNIVERSITY, RAJAMAHENDRAVARAM)

Phone: 08818 252189, E-mail: narayanapuram.jkc@gmail.com

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

2022-23

BIRTH ANNIVERSARY OF BABU JAGAJJEEVAN RAM

Event Title: Birth anniversary of Babu Jagajjeevan Ram

Date: 4-4-23

Organizers: Department of History and Political Science

Speakers: P. Bhaskar Rao Gaaru (Lecturer in History), P.Uma Shankar (Lecturer in Political Science)

Participant departments: Department of Telugu, Physics, Chemistry, Mathematics and Commerce.

Number of students participated: 28

Introduction:

The Department of History and Political Science organized a special event on April 4th, 2023, to commemorate the birth anniversary of Babu Jagjivan Ram, a prominent leader and social reformer in India's history. The event aimed to honor Jagjivan Ram's contributions to the nation and to inspire students to learn from his principles of social justice and empowerment.

Event Highlights:

Keynote Address by P. Bhaskar Rao Gaaru:

The event commenced with a keynote address delivered by P. Bhaskar Rao Gaaru, a seasoned lecturer in History. Mr. Rao provided an insightful overview of Babu Jagjivan Ram's life, highlighting his remarkable journey from humble beginnings to becoming one of India's foremost leaders. He emphasized Jagjivan Ram's advocacy for the rights of marginalized communities and his significant role in shaping India's socio-political landscape.

Perspectives from P. Uma Shankar:

P. Uma Shankar, a lecturer in Political Science, shared her perspectives on the political legacy of Babu Jagjivan Ram. She discussed his pioneering efforts in championing the cause of social justice, gender equality, and upliftment of the underprivileged sections of society. Her speech shed light on Jagjivan Ram's vision for a more inclusive and equitable India.

Departmental Participation and Student Engagement:

The event saw active participation from various departments, including Telugu, Physics, Chemistry, Mathematics, and Commerce. Students from these departments contributed to the event through presentations, discussions, and cultural performances, showcasing their appreciation for Jagjivan Ram's legacy and his impact on different spheres of Indian society.

P.Bhaskararao Lecturer in History speaking on the occasion

Outcome of the Event:

The birth anniversary commemoration of Babu Jagjivan Ram served as a platform for students to gain a deeper understanding of his life, contributions, and ideals. It inspired students to reflect on the values of social justice, equality, and empowerment espoused by Jagjivan Ram and encouraged them to become agents of positive change in their communities.

Conclusion:

The Birth Anniversary Commemoration of Babu Jagjivan Ram organized by the Department of History and Political Science was a meaningful tribute to a towering figure in India's history. Through insightful speeches, departmental participation, and student engagement, the event celebrated Jagjivan Ram's legacy and highlighted his enduring relevance in contemporary times. It reinforced the importance of upholding his principles of social justice and empowerment as we strive for a more inclusive and equitable society.

Lecturers honouring the late President of India

Signature of the Department In charge

Signature of the Principal

S.A.S. GOVERNMENT DEGREE COLLEGE
NARAYANAPURAM, WEST GODAVARI DISTRICT-534411
(AFFILIATED TO ADIKAVI NANNAYA UNIVERSITY, RAJAMAHENDRAVARAM)

Phone: 08818 252189, E-mail: narayanapuram.jkc@gmail.com

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

2022-23

Event Title: International day against child labour

Date: 12-6-23

Organizers: Department of History

Speakers: P. Bhaskar Rao (Lecturer in History), D.Reddiah (Lecturer in English)

Faculty attended from the departments: English, Botany, Zoology, Chemistry, and Commerce.

Faculty attended: 7

Students attended: 28

Keynote Address by P. Bhaskar Rao:

The event commenced with a keynote address delivered by P. Bhaskar Rao, shedding light on the issue of child labour from a historical perspective. Mr. Rao highlighted the socio-economic factors contributing to child labour and emphasized the importance of concerted efforts to eradicate this practice.

Perspectives from D. Reddiah:

D. Reddiah, a lecturer in English, provided insights into the impact of child labour on children's education and psychological well-being. He emphasized the need for comprehensive policies and interventions to protect vulnerable children from exploitation and ensure their access to education and a safe environment.

Faculty Attendance:

Faculty members from various departments, including English, Botany, Zoology, Chemistry, and Commerce, attended the event, demonstrating interdisciplinary interest and support for the cause. Their presence enriched the discussions and underscored the importance of collaborative efforts in addressing the issue of child labour.

P.Bhaskara Rao speaking on the occasion about the cruelty involved in child labour

Faculty against child labour

Outcome of the Event:

The International Day Against Child Labour commemoration provided a platform for attendees to deepen their understanding of the complex issues surrounding child labour and to explore potential strategies for prevention and intervention. The event fostered empathy and solidarity towards children affected by labour exploitation and inspired participants to take proactive steps towards advocacy and action.

Conclusion:

The International Day Against Child Labour commemoration organized by the Department of History was a poignant reminder of the urgent need to address the scourge of child labour and protect the rights of vulnerable children. Through insightful speeches and interdisciplinary discussions, the event served as a catalyst for raising awareness and mobilizing collective action to combat child labour and promote child welfare.

Signature of the Department In charge

Signature of the Principal

S.A.S. GOVERNMENT DEGREE COLLEGE
NARAYANAPURAM, WEST GODAVARI DISTRICT-534411
(AFFILIATED TO ADIKAVI NANNAYA UNIVERSITY, RAJAMAHENDRAVARAM)

Phone: 08818 252189, E-mail: narayanapuram.jkc@gmail.com

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

2022-23

JHASI LAKSHMIBAI COMMEMORATION DAY

Event Title: Commemoration day of queen Lakshmbai of Jhansi

Date: 17-6-23

Organizers: Department of History and Political Science

Speakers: P. Bhaskar Rao Gaaru (Lecturer in History), Dr.K.Ravi (Lecturer in Telugu)

Participant departments: Department of Telugu, Physics and Commerce.

P.Bhaskararao Lecturer in History speaking on the occasion

Introduction:

The Department of History and Political Science organized a special event on June 17th, 2023, to commemorate the life and legacy of Queen Lakshmibai of Jhansi, a courageous leader and symbol of resistance during India's struggle for independence. The event aimed to honor her contributions to Indian history and to inspire reflection on her bravery and sacrifice.

Event Details:

Keynote Address by P. Bhaskar Rao:

The event began with a keynote address delivered by P. Bhaskar Rao, lecturer in History. Mr. Rao provided a detailed account of Queen Lakshmibai's life, highlighting her role in the 1857 uprising against British colonial rule and her unwavering commitment to defending the rights and dignity of her people. He underscored Lakshmibai's leadership qualities, strategic acumen, and indomitable spirit, which continue to inspire generations.

Contribution from Dr. K. Ravi:

Dr. K. Ravi, from the Department of Telugu, offered insights into the cultural and literary aspects of Queen Lakshmibai's legacy. He discussed how her story has been immortalized in Telugu literature and folklore, serving as a source of inspiration for poets, writers, and artists. Dr. Ravi emphasized the importance of preserving and promoting the memory of historical figures like Lakshmibai for future generations.

Interdisciplinary Perspectives:

The event featured participation from departments beyond History and Political Science, including Telugu, Physics, and Commerce. This interdisciplinary approach provided attendees with diverse perspectives on Queen Lakshmibai's life and legacy, highlighting her impact across different domains of society and culture.

Outcome of the Event:

The Commemoration Day of Queen Lakshmibai of Jhansi served as a platform for students and faculty to gain a deeper understanding of her historical significance and enduring legacy. The event fostered a sense of pride in India's rich cultural and historical heritage and inspired attendees to draw lessons from Lakshmibai's courage, resilience, and commitment to justice.

Conclusion:

The event organized by the Department of History and Political Science, with the participation of various departments, was a poignant tribute to Queen Lakshmibai of Jhansi. Through insightful speeches, discussions, and interdisciplinary engagement, the event celebrated her contributions to Indian history and underscored the importance of honoring the courage and sacrifice of freedom fighters like Lakshmibai. It reaffirmed the timeless relevance of her legacy in inspiring future generations to uphold the values of courage, patriotism, and selfless service.

Dr.Konda Ravi sharing his knowledge on the occasion

Signature of the Department In charge

Signature of the Principal

S.A.S. GOVERNMENT DEGREE COLLEGE
NARAYANAPURAM, WEST GODAVARI DISTRICT-534411
(AFFILIATED TO ADIKAVI NANNAYA UNIVERSITY, RAJAMAHENDRAVARAM)

Phone: 08818 252189, E-mail: narayanapuram.jkc@gmail.com

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

2022-23

BIRTH ANNIVERSARY OF PV NARASIMHARAO

LATE PRIME MINISTER OF INDIA

Event Title: Birth anniversary of PV.Narasimharao

Date: 28-6-23

Organizers: Department of History and Political Science

Speakers: P. Bhaskar Rao Gaaru (Lecturer in History)

Participating departments: Departments of Politics, Economics and library science

Participating students: All BA

Introduction:

The Department of History and Political Science, in collaboration with the Departments of Politics, Economics, and Library Science, organized a special event on June 28th, 2023, to commemorate the birth anniversary of PV Narasimha Rao, a distinguished statesman and former Prime Minister of India. The event aimed to celebrate Rao's contributions to Indian politics and economics and to inspire students to learn from his leadership and vision.

Event Details:

Keynote Address by P. Bhaskar Rao:

The event commenced with a keynote address delivered by P. Bhaskar Rao, a respected lecturer in History. Mr. Rao provided insights into the life and legacy of PV Narasimha Rao, highlighting his pivotal role in shaping India's economic reforms and steering the country through a period of significant transformation. He underscored Rao's leadership qualities, pragmatism, and commitment to inclusive development.

Panel Discussion on Rao's Political and Economic Legacy:

Following the keynote address, there was a panel discussion involving faculty members from the Departments of Politics and Economics. The discussion focused on various aspects of PV Narasimha Rao's political and economic legacy, including his role in liberalizing the Indian economy, promoting foreign investment, and initiating diplomatic initiatives. The panelists examined Rao's policies in the context of contemporary challenges and opportunities.

Library Exhibition on Rao's Life and Work:

The Department of Library Science organized an exhibition featuring books, articles, and archival materials related to PV Narasimha Rao's life and work. The exhibition provided students with an opportunity to delve deeper into Rao's contributions and to gain a comprehensive understanding of his political and economic philosophy.

Outcome of the Event:

The commemoration of PV Narasimha Rao's birth anniversary provided a platform for students to gain insights into his leadership style, decision-making process, and policy initiatives. The event encouraged students to critically analyze Rao's contributions to Indian politics and economics and to draw lessons for contemporary governance and policymaking.

Conclusion:

The PV Narasimha Rao Birth Anniversary Commemoration organized by the Department of History and Political Science, in collaboration with other departments, was a meaningful tribute to a visionary leader who played a pivotal role in shaping India's destiny. Through insightful discussions, exhibitions, and engagement with students, the event celebrated Rao's legacy and inspired the next generation of leaders to uphold his values of pragmatism, innovation, and inclusive growth.

Participant departments

BA Students in the Occasion

Signature of the Department In charge

Signature of the Principal

S.A.S. GOVERNMENT DEGREE COLLEGE
NARAYANAPURAM, WEST GODAVARI DISTRICT-534411
(AFFILIATED TO ADIKAVI NANNAYA UNIVERSITY, RAJAMAHENDRAVARAM)

Phone: 08818 252189, E-mail: narayanapuram.jkc@gmail.com

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

2022-23

BIRTH ANNIVERSARY OF ALLURI SITA RAMARAJU

Event Title: allure Sitaramaraju Birth anniversary

Date: 4-7-23

Organizers: Department of History and Political Science

Speakers: P. Bhaskar Rao Gaaru (Lecturer in History)

Introduction:

The Department of History and Political Science organized a special event on July 4th, 2023, to commemorate the birth anniversary of Alluri Sitaramaraju, an iconic figure in India's struggle for independence. The event aimed to pay tribute to Sitaramaraju's courage and leadership, particularly in mobilizing tribal communities against colonial rule.

Event Details:

Keynote Address by P. Bhaskar Rao:

The event commenced with a keynote address delivered by P. Bhaskar Rao, a respected lecturer in History. Mr. Rao provided a comprehensive overview of Alluri Sitaramaraju's life, emphasizing his pivotal role in the anti-colonial movement in Andhra Pradesh. He highlighted Sitaramaraju's dedication to the cause of independence and his efforts to empower marginalized communities.

Discussion on Sitaramaraju's Legacy:

Following the keynote address, there was a panel discussion involving faculty members and students, focusing on Sitaramaraju's enduring legacy. Participants shared insights into his strategic brilliance, his ability to unite diverse groups, and his unwavering commitment to social justice. The discussion also explored the relevance of Sitaramaraju's principles in contemporary struggles for equality and rights.

Outcome of the Event:

The commemoration of Alluri Sitaramaraju's birth anniversary provided a platform for reflection, dialogue, and celebration. It deepened participants' understanding of Sitaramaraju's contributions to India's freedom struggle and fostered a sense of pride in his achievements. Furthermore, the event inspired attendees to draw inspiration from Sitaramaraju's courage and determination in confronting injustice and oppression.

Conclusion:

The Alluri Sitaramaraju Birth Anniversary Commemoration organized by the Department of History and Political Science was a resounding success. Through insightful speeches, discussions, and cultural presentations, the event paid homage to a remarkable leader and reaffirmed his place in the annals of Indian history. It served as a reminder of the importance of remembering and honoring those who fought tirelessly for the nation's freedom and inspired attendees to uphold the values of justice, equality, and solidarity.

K.Uma Shankar of the department of Political science reading about the legend

Gathering discussing about the great deeds of Alluri

Signature of the Department In charge

Signature of the Principal